Resignation of Fire Chief Justin Johnston

17 September 2020

ST. GEORGE - Fire Chief Justin Johnston has announced his resignation as Fire Chief for the St. George Volunteer Fire Department effective September 14, 2020. Johnston served in the role since July 2018.

Upon the resignation the current Deputy Fire Chief Sean Morton will assume the role of Acting Fire Chief. Morton previous served as Fire Chief from 2011 to 2018, and was replaced by Johnston. Morton also serves as a full-time Fire Chief for the Town of St. Stephen.

“The Town of St. George would like to thank Chief Johnston for his service to town and the surrounding communities. We wish him all the best in his future endeavours.” says Acting Mayor Faith Avery. “We wish to extend support to the leadership and members of the fire department as they move through this period of change.”
